

ALTA SAFETY COMMITTEE / VIRTUAL MEETING – JUNE 17thAGENDA

PANAMA TIME (GMT – 5)	SPEAKER	SUBJECT
14:30 – 14:40	Virginio Corrieri – Head of Operations and Safety / ALTA	Opening
14:40 – 15:05	Capt. Rafael Rastrello – Head of Flight Safety / LATAM	Welcome words / Safety II
15:05 – 15:25	Paulo Razaboni – Air Safety Investigator / Embraer SA	Controlled Crash Into Terrain
15:25 – 15:45	Rudy Quevedo – Independent Aviation Safety Advisor	Organizational Resilience in Airline Operations
15:45 – 16:10	Capt. Augusto Viana – Safety Manager / Gol Airlines	Wildlife Hazard Management
16:10 – 16:25	Capt. José Ruiz Llorente – Director Safety and Flight Operations Americas/ IATA	Identifying systemic safety opportunities through a data-driven approach
16:25 – 16:35	-	Audience questions / comments
16:35 – 16:40	Capt. Rafael Rastrello – Head of Flight Safety / LATAM	Closing

SPEAKER	BIO
Capt. Rafael Rastrello	Capt. Rastrello is the Safety Director of LATAM Airlines Group, and extensively experienced airplane pilot, Captain and instructor A320 Family, including experience in the A330 and Fokker 100 fleet. Master in Aeronautical and Mechanical Engineering, Instituto Tecnológico de Aeronáutica – ITA. Post-graduated in Aviation Safety and Continuing Airworthiness, Instituto Tecnológico de Aeronáutica – ITA. Bachelor's in Civil Aviation, Universidade Anhembi Morumbi. Accident Investigator, CENIPA. He is also the Chairman of Regional Coordinating Group - Latin America and Caribbean (LATAM/CAR RCG -IATA), Chairperson of ALTA-IATA Safety Team, responsible for exchanging best practices between operators and authorities to improve safety ratings in the region, and extensively experienced Professor at Anhembi Morumbi University (graduation and post-graduation).
Paulo Razaboni	Paulo M. RAZABONI has a degree in Electronic Engineering, with specialization in Air Safety, Management and Production Administration. He is an accredited element by the Aeronautical Accident Prevention and Investigation System (SIPAER-Brazil). After working for 20 years with industrial process control and appliance development, he joined EMBRAER in 2007 in the Technical Support area. He moved to the Air Safety Department in 2010, working with statistics and flight data analysis. Focusing on event investigation, he developed a 3-D animation software called

	Flyback, which has been used in over 200 analyzes to date. He has presented his work in several international forums, representing the company on issues related to air safety and innovation, promoting the safety culture, and supporting the development of specifications for data recorders.
Rudy Quevedo	Rudy is a 40-year veteran of the airline industry and has also held key positions in international organizations, including Director of Safety at the International Air Transport Association (IATA) and Director of Global Programs at Flight Safety Foundation. In these roles he engaged in advocacy on key issues related to aviation safety, including participation on key ICAO panels and Steering Groups to drive enhanced safety standards. His operational experience includes various roles and responsibilities including maintenance/engineering, quality, and safety during his time with Eastern Airlines, USAirways, jetBlue, and North American. He remains active in supporting the advancement of safety initiatives with ICAO and FSF as well as serving airlines and other aviation organizations as a technical advisor.
Capt. Augusto Viana	Capt. Viana currently is Safety Manager, Boeing 737-700 and 737-800 Captain and Instructor of GOL Airlines. Flew in VASP and Nordeste as a First Officer for 4 years. Total of 11,000 flight hours. He has a Psychology Degree by Anhembi Morumbi University and Marketing Degree as well. Plane Crash Investigator accredited by CENIPA. Also, Fauna National Risk Commission Coordinator (CNRFF) in National Aviation Accident Prevention Council (CNPAA), and IOSA Auditor Training.
Capt. José Ruiz Llorente	Capt. José Ruiz Llorente was born in Madrid, Spain, and has over 30 years of aeronautical experience. He is an Iberia Airlines Captain and Line Check Pilot. Also, Flight, Sim and Ground Instructor, and EBT certified Instructor. José holds both FAA and EASA ATPL, Instructor licenses and ratings, having flown also as Captain for TWE in the USA, JFK International based. Ha also has a Master degree on Airlines and Airports Management by the University San Pablo CEU in Madrid, Spain. Currently, José is the IATA Safety and Fight Operations Director for Las Americas Region.